001	5/28/2026	City Code 34.5-18(c) Advertising Any advertising of the vacation rental shall contain the maximum occupancy limit for the rental and shall conform to the minimum stay requirement set out in Section II-304(b) of the Zoning Code. The advertising of a vacation rental for an occupancy level that exceeds the maximum occupancy limit set by Section 34.5-16 is a violation of this Section and is direct evidence of offering a property for rent as a vacation rental in violation of the maximum occupancy limits of Section 34.5-16 and the advertising or advertisement is admissible in any enforcement proceeding. The advertising or advertisement raises a rebuttable presumption that the property identified in the advertising or advertisement was occupied in violation of Section 34.5-16. Any advertising of a property for purposes of a vacation rental shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the use of that property as a vacation rental for purposes of enforcing all sections of this Chapter. Infraction: The property is being advertised and operated for periods of less than the minimum stay requirement of 7 days and 7 nights. Corrective Action: Cease advertising and/or operating this property as a vacation rental for periods of less than (7) full days, (7) full nights, or less than 168 hours, and maintain compliance with the minimum stay requirements. The property will be monitored to ensure that compliance is maintained.
002	5/28/2026	Zoning Code Sec. II-304(b)(1) Household Living Characteristics. Household Living is characterized by the residential occupancy of a dwelling unit by a family. Tenancy is arranged for periods longer than one week. Uses where tenancy may be arranged for a shorter period are not considered residential. They are considered to be a form of transient lodging (see the retail sales and service and community service categories). Condominiums, apartment complexes that have accessory services such as food service, dining rooms, and housekeeping are included as household living. Infraction: The property is being advertised and operated for periods of less than the minimum stay requirement of 7 days and 7 nights. Corrective Action:	Cease advertising and/or operating this property as a vacation rental for periods of less than (7) full days, (7) full nights, or less than 168 hours, and maintain compliance with the minimum stay requirements. The property will be monitored to ensure that compliance is maintained.

The alleged violation(s) shall be corrected within 3 days from receipt of this Notice of Violation. If any of the alleged violation(s) continue(s) beyond that number of days, a hearing will be set in front of the Special Magistrate, and fines and costs could be imposed against you and your property if you are found to be in violation.

It is your responsibility to contact the Code Compliance Inspector at the phone number(s) provided at the end of this Notice of Violation when all violations have been corrected and the property has been brought into compliance. Schedule this inspection as soon as you have corrected the violation(s) in order to negate the need for a hearing and the possible imposition of costs and/or fines against you. If you correct the violation(s) within the stated time and the Code Compliance Inspector has verified that the property is in compliance, there will be no hearing and no fines or costs imposed, except for repeat violations.

You will receive a notice by certified mail regarding the specific date and time of the administrative hearing. You must attend the hearing, present evidence, and testify to any mitigating circumstances regarding the alleged violation. You will be liable for the costs imposed by the Special Magistrate which include costs of the investigation, prosecution and the administrative hearing should you be found guilty of the violation(s) by the Magistrate. You shall also be responsible for a one percent (1%) fee for all fines paid to fund certification and training programs.

All fines and costs imposed by the Special Magistrate's Order shall be recorded as a lien against your personal and real property and shall bear interest at the maximum rate allowed by law.
