Dear Owner,

The Mayor and the City Commission are greatly concerned about the need to keep all houses and properties located within the City of Sarasota, Florida, in a safe, sanitary and useable condition. To promote these goals, on-site inspections are performed regularly by City Inspectors. These inspections are performed in the interest of the safety and public welfare of all citizens. This program has resulted in an inspection of the property referenced in this Notice of Violation.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that Case No. 2026-01018 has been opened on the property described below:

Legal Owner: CASTRO JAIME, CASTRO LISA

Property ID: 2019100021

As a result of the inspection of the above referenced property conducted on 04/28/2026 the City contends that the property is in violation of the provisions of the following code section(s):

Violation Listings:		Number of Violations Listed: 6

City Code 34.5-18(c) Advertising

Any advertising of the vacation rental shall contain the maximum occupancy limit for the rental and shall conform to the minimum stay requirement set out in Section II-304(b) of the Zoning Code. The advertising of a vacation rental for an occupancy level that exceeds the maximum occupancy limit set by Section 34.5-16 is a violation of this Section and is direct evidence of offering a property for rent as a vacation rental in violation of the maximum occupancy limits of Section 34.5-16 and the advertising or advertisement is admissible in any enforcement proceeding. The advertising or advertisement raises a rebuttable presumption that the property identified in the advertising or advertisement was occupied in violation of Section 34.5-16. Any advertising of a property for purposes of a vacation rental shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the use of that property as a vacation rental for purposes of enforcing all sections of this Chapter.

Infraction: The vacation rental is being advertised for an occupancy level that exceeds the maximum occupancy limit set forth by City Code Section 34.5-16.

Corrective Action: Cease advertising this property for an occupancy level that exceeds the maximum occupancy limit set by City Code Section 34.5-16. The allowed maximum occupancy for the vacation rental is ten (10). The property will be monitored to ensure that compliance is maintained.

The alleged violation(s) shall be corrected within 20 days from receipt of this Notice of Violation. If any of the alleged violation(s) continue(s) beyond that number of days, a hearing will be set in front of the Special Magistrate, and fines and costs could be imposed against you and your property if you are found to be in violation.

It is your responsibility to contact the Code Compliance Inspector at the phone number(s) provided at the end of this Notice of Violation when all violations have been corrected and the property has been brought into compliance. Schedule this inspection as soon as you have corrected the violation(s) in order to negate the need for a hearing and the possible imposition of costs and/or fines against you. If you correct the violation(s) within the stated time and the Code Compliance Inspector has verified that the property is in compliance, there will be no hearing and no fines or costs imposed, except for repeat violations.

Failure to correct the alleged violation(s), will result in the City scheduling a hearing to allow the Special Magistrate to hear the case and to enter an Order imposing the fines and costs which have accrued if a violation is found. You will receive a notice by certified mail regarding the specific date and time of the administrative hearing. You must attend the hearing, present evidence, and testify to any mitigating circumstances regarding the alleged violation. You will be liable for the costs imposed by the Special Magistrate which include costs of the investigation, prosecution and the administrative hearing should you be found guilty of the violation(s) by the Magistrate. You shall also be responsible for a one percent (1%) fee for all fines paid to fund certification and training programs.

All fines and costs imposed by the Special Magistrate's Order shall be recorded as a lien against your personal and real property and shall bear interest at the maximum rate allowed by law.

If you have any questions regarding the notice or the violations, please contact the Code Compliance Inspector at the phone number(s) provided at the end of this Notice of Violation between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, or address correspondence to City of Sarasota Code Compliance Division, 1575 2nd Street, Sarasota, Florida 34236. Please indicate the case number and property address on all correspondence.
